Reply to the discussion on 'Financial reporting quality in international settings: A comparative study of the U.S.A, Japan, Thailand, France and Germany'

DOI: 10.1016/j.intacc.2010.01.010

a School of Accountancy, Massey University, Auckland, New Zealand
b School of Accountancy, University of the Thai Chamber of Commerce, Bangkok, Thailand
c Department of Accounting and Finance, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia

References

- Dechow, P.M., Sloan, R.G., Sweeney, A.P.
  Detecting earnings management

- Fan, J., Wong, T.J.
  Corporate ownership structure and the informativeness of accounting earnings in East Asia

- Haw, I., Hu, L., Hwang, B., Wu, W.
  Ultimate ownership, income management, and legal and extra-legal institutions

- Jones, J.
  Earnings management during import relief investigations

- Kothari, S., Leone, A., Wasley, C.
  Performance matched abnormal accrual measures

- Wysocki, P.D.